Parents Worried Over Girl's Mysterious Disappearance

The police of all surrounding towns have been asked to be on the lookout for Anna Meinerk, a pretty 16 year old girl of this city, who mysteriously disappeared from her home yesterday afternoon, and has not been seen or heard from since. The girl is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Meinerk of Rostraver street, and left home at 2 o'clock yesterday, telling her mother she was going to look for work. She is the eldest of seven children and the parents are almost distracted at her sudden disappearance.

About a year ago she was employed for a time in the office of a local physician, but her father made her resign in order that she could help about the house, and for the past year she has attended to the duties of the household, never once leaving home over night.

She was dressed in a white dress, and wore a grey hat and grey shoes when she left home yesterday. Her mother thinks probably she left for Pittsburgh to look for work, as Sunday afternoon she remained in the house looking over the want columns of the Pittsburgh papers. Her father, accompanied by a local police officer, went to Pittsburgh to search for her.

Hundreds Attending Picnic Today

When the outing for the poor children of the town was planned, those in charge thought that the attendance would probably reach the hundred mark, but when they began to arrive at the dispensary at 7 o'clock this morning and continued to arrive in crowds of ten and fifteen, it was soon evident that this number would be reached long before the hour set for the first truck to leave for the Sheetz farm. At ten o'clock over three hundred children had reported for the day and every available automobile in town was pressed into service to get the children to the picnic grounds.

Two hundred and fifty lolly pops were donated by one merchant, but these were given out long before 9 o'clock, and the Arbor Stationery Co. came to the rescue with several additional boxes, so that each child enjoyed a lolly pop while waiting in line for their turn in an automobile. At the farm about twenty ladies assisted in getting things in shape for dinner which was spread under the trees and despite the big crowd, there was plenty of good things for all.

In the afternoon a program of races was held for the boys and girls and after romping through the woods to their heart's content, the children were brought back to town a tired but happy lot. It was the first picnic for many of the children and they certainly enjoyed the day.

Among the women who assisted at the grounds were Mrs. J. Howard Kelly, Mrs. Lorrin Culler, Mrs. P. Leathers, Mrs. Jacob Meyers, Mrs. J. B. Wall, Mrs. Harry Watt, Mrs. J. I. Smith, Mrs. C. L. Lewis, Mrs. Henry Helmboldt, Mrs. J. B. Sullivan, Mrs. D. C. Farquhar, Mrs J. J. Cushing, Mrs. J. D Lemon and Mrs. H. J. Bearer.

Young Couple Were Married Saturday

Thomas Teeters and Frieda Bertha Karlowsky were united in marriage last Saturday evening. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Albrecht at the home of the bride's father, 136 Schoonmaker avenue. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Teeters, 1051 Morgan avenue. He is employed at the American Tin Plate mill. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Karlowsky. They are at home to their many friends at 518 Ninth street. The best wishes of their many friends go with them.

New Bathing Beach

Not to be outdone by any of the larger municipalities along the Monongahela river, North Charleroi is establishing a bathing beach along the river shore at what is known as the "Second Hollow." A bath house is being built through private enterprise, and the shore put into condition. The shore at this point is excellent for bathing purposes, with a long stretch of sand and pebbles.

Charleroi was the first borough south of McKeesport to adopt the bathing beach idea, and enjoyed last year a successful run with no competition. This year numerous beaches have been established, Belle Vernon has one, Speers one, Allenport and Fayette City one and Brownsville one Further up the river others are to be found.

Boy Scouts Enjoying Camp Life

Forty-four members of the Boy Scouts of this city and Charleroi left here yesterday morning for their camp at Cedar Creek, and reports brought in by Visitor Ben Brown and Scout Master Bowes this morning state that the camp is all set up and the boys are enjoying life in the woods. The seven miles to the camp was made in good time, the boys walking the entire distance, while Marple's big truck carried the tents and cooking utensils. Ten tents have bene pitched, including seven sleeping tents, a cook tent and kitchen.

A few hours after their arrival at the camp, the tents were pitched and with everything in order for the first day, a number of the boys left for the swimming hole, while others went fishing. They returned in the evening with the first fish and hopes are entertained that a fish dinner will be on the menu before camp is broken.

All Scouts are ordered out of bed at 7 o'clock in the morning, but the order will probably not be enforced as the boys are up long before this time. This morning a number of boys aroused the camp with noise in their tents and Scout Master Marshall made them pay a penalty of getting up and making the fire and cooking breakfast for the camp. The meal consisted of oatmeal and milk, bacon and eggs and cocoa.

A good swimming hole has been located and the morning dip promises to become one of the main features. Visitors will be welcomed at all hours of the day, and the glad hand of Scoutdom will be extended them if they will only bring something good to eat with them, as delicacies are hard to secure by the campers. Long hikes during the day are sure to bring up the appetites and the larder will be greatly diminished before the week is over. "Rube" Watkins has promised to get several turtles and visit the camp, probably Thursday and treat the boys to a mess of turtle soup. The camp is well located and the boys started in early this morning to clean up and will keep things in the most sanitary condition.

—A charity euchre will be given under the auspices of the L. C. B. A. on the veranda of the Union hotel at First street, Thursday evening. Euchre. 500. Pit and Old Maids will be played and eighteen prizes will be given. All are welcome. 1t

Charge Young Man With Theft Of Girl's Pocketbook

Richard Welch, a well known local young man is in the lockup charged with the theft of a pocketbook containing about $8.00 from Anna Wilkinson, a waitress in a Charleroi restaurant. The theft took place last evening in the vicinity of the Monessen-Charleroi bridge, and the girl claims that Welch snatched her purse from her hand as she was walking along the bridge. He was accompanied by Tom McKee and the police are hunting him as an accomplice.

According to stories circulating around, the girl had been in company with the young man Saturday evening and last evening, and following the theft of her money which she charged to Welch, she came to Monessen and notified the police. Welch was soon rounded up and placed in jail, where the girl identified him as the right party. She promised to appear this morning and bring information against him before a Justice of the Peace.

George Slyvester, aged 78 was the only prisoner to face Acting Burgess Dale this morning. He was charged with being drunk, but promised to get out of town if allowed his freedom. He was discharged.

Train For War

Plattsburg, Pa., Aug. 10—Business and professional men of the United States have today inaugurated a new form of vacation. Instead of lolling at ease on the piazzas of summer hoteds, on yachts and ocean steamers, they are going into military training. Five hundred leading men of New York, Boston, Chicago and other cities of the East have reported for a course of military training. Their camp at Plattsburg Barracks marks a new era in the military history of the United States. It is the first attempt to introduce the Swiss plan of national defense into this country.

The latest adjunct to military preparedness has the sanction of the government. The camp which opened here today has been authorized by Secretary of War Garrison upon the recommendation of Major General Leonard Wood. The business and professional men demanded a chance to train. Their activity is no longer limited to talk, but has taken the form of effective organization. The personnel of the new camp is recruited from older men than attend the students' camp.

The new idea is not to confine the militiary strength of the government to a small regular army and national guard, but to train all citizens, from boys of 12 to men of 50 to handle arms, march, signal and obey orders and to do the things a soldier should know in times of war, so that if called to the colors to protect the country against invasion, there will be something more than "cannon-fodder."

Auto Races at Brunots Island

The entries for the big Night Auto Races at the Brunots Island Race tracks, Saturday, August 14th, are coming in steadily, and the field of star drivers promises to surpass even the big meet recently held at Brighton Beach Race Track when the biggest aggregation of star drivers ever assembled on a dirt track participated. A number of local drivers have applied for entry blanks but same have been refused, as the management is not desirous of allowing inexperienced drivers to compete against the crack drivers because of the danger. Art Kline and his great 300 h. p. Blitzen Benz, the fastest and most powerful car in the world, have been entered; also Gotof, the "Flying Dutchman," with his speedy National, with which Joe Dawson won the second 500 mile Indianapolis sweepstake; Frank Jennings with his speedy Keeton; Kennedy, the coast phenom, with his Kennedy special; Roy Repp with the powerful Pope Hummer; "Wild" Bill Endicott and his team mate Lonsdale with their two speedy Maxwells, and other notable pilots of high powered cars are already ready to face the starter's flag.

The big event of the programme will be the 50 mile free for all long distance derby which will be run Saturday night, August 14th with seven other big events. The afternoon program will consist of eight events made up of races ranging from three to five miles each, with an exhibition by the famous Blitzen Benz which will also perform at the night events. The races will start promptly at 2:30 p. m. in the afternoon and at 8:30 p. m. at night.

Each driver who takes part in the big 50 mile race must drive a time trial, and only the fastest cars will be allowed to start. The prizes for this event will be for $2,500, divided into four positions. A special prize of $500 will be offered to the car which breaks a state or world's record; the big prize will no doubt go to the daring driver of the Blitzen Benz.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

ELECTORS ARE INDIFFERENT

Woman-like, Each Side Is Taking Comfort Out of Situation and Says It Presages a Triumph — Apathy May be Due to War and Other Counter Interests.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—Whether it is due to war excitement or some other cause the advocates of woman's suffrage and those opposed to suffrage are both finding it difficult to arouse the voters to the big issue that will de decided at the polls in November. Speechmaking is going on in various counties of the state, the suffrage association has a liberty bell that is being motored from place to place, and both camps are issuing literature on the subject. But somehow the great body of electors are giving little heed to all these efforts, in fact they seem unconcerned and indifferent as to the fate of the amendment.

Suffrage workers are not discouraged at the present condition of apathy among the voters. They say that it indicates sure victory in that the voters are taking it for granted that the amendment will go through and feel there is no necessity for mid-summer excitement over a sure result.

On the other hand the "antis" see defeat for suffrage in the existing situation. Leading women opposed to suffrage contend that it never carried in a state where the issue did not predominate in the minds of the voters; that the electors are giving no attention to it because they are not interested in it. Then these "antis" follow out this line of reasoning by stating that nobody votes for a thing he is not interested in.

GAME LAWS MADE PLAIN

Rabbits and Squirrels Cannot be Sold According to Law Enacted.

Philadelphia, Aug. 10.—The last legislature passed a game law, introduced by Representative Phillips, of Clearfield, which specifically forbids the sale of rabbits and squirrels killed in the state, and forbids the shipping of all game except when accompanied by the shipper.

The new law prohibits the ownership, transfer, sale or transportation of ferrets except under license which will only be granted by the game commission for good reasons. It forbids the taking of bear in any way except by the use of a rifle or gun shooting only one ball and forbids the trapping of bear in any way. It prevents hunting for hire, by making it illegal for any man paid as a guide or in any other way as a hunter to give, sell or present game of any kind to his employer and similarly forbids the employer receiving game from such employe or guide. It fixes the game season as follows:

Squirrels of all kinds, grouse, woodcock, quail, wild turkey, Mongolian or ring-neck or English pheasant, black birds, Hungarian quail—October 15 to November 30, inclusive.

Rabbits and hares—November 1 to November 30.

Deer—December 1 to December 15.

Bear—October 15 to December 15.

Raccoon—October 15 to December 31.

it fixes the bag limits as follows:

	Per Day	Per Week	Per Season
Wild Turkey	1	1	1
Deer (male)	1	1	1
Bear	1	1	1
Grouse	5	20	30
Quail	3	25	40
Woodcock	10	20	20
Hungarian Quail	4	10	20
Ring Neck	4	10	20
Squirrels	6	20	40
Rabbits	10	30	60
Hare	3	15	30

Ring-neck pheasants raised strictly in captivity may be killed by their owners on their own premises during the open season without regard to number.

It is made unlawful to shoot at any doe or fawn, the penalty being the same as that provided if the deer is killed and similarly the wounding or killing in any manner of female deer and fawns is forbidden.

IN POLITICAL WORLD

Philadelphia this year elects a mayor, city solicitor, city controller, sheriff, recorder of deeds, commissioners and coroner.

Figures of the registration and enrollment in boroughs and townships through the state continue to show gains for the Republican Party.

Nineteen of the twenty-four third-class cities of the state will elect mayors at the coming election. City commissioners are chosen in all third class cities.

The state highway department will not permit the placing of candidates cards on trees and poles along state highways. When these cards are torn or blown off the tacks in them are liable to damage tires of motor vehicles.

And then, one night, on a barren strip of land jutting out into the Atlantic, a fisherman, concealed behind a rock, sees the periscope of a submarine rise sees a man's head and shoulders rise seemingly out of the sea, and sees a pair of athletic arms strike out bravely for the shore.

That night, at a hotel in New York, a distinguished looking foreigner, much resembling the man who seemed to rise up out of the sea, is shadowed by a fussy old gentleman resembling the fisherman of the boat scene. The foreigner goes out, and the fussy old gentlemtn goes to his room. where after a short, sharp struggle with a valet, he searches through all drawers and papers. One paper he pockets with glee and then departs. Elaine and Jameson are visited by the distinguished looking foreigner who tells them he is a secret service agent from Washington and begs to get information with regard to Kennedy and the lost torpedo. Elaine's dog, digging with its forepaws in a pot of palms, unearths the lost torpedo and carries it up to the attic where he drops it behind a trunk. The torpedo's propeller, however, has been left in the palm pot, where Marcius Del Mar, the foreigner finds it. Elaine is suspected by him of having concealed the torpedo. The fussy old gentleman in Del Mar's tracks since he left his rooms is an interested spectator. He is unaware that Del Mar has spies guarding the house, and is set upon by them. Rushing madly into the conservatory, he faces Del Mar. Both draw their guns, but the fussy old gentleman fires first. His gun is loaded with bullets containing asphyxiating gas. Both Del Mar and Elaine fall suffocated to the floor How the fussy old gentleman escapes is a fitting climax to this most thrilling episode, and will cause you to wonder who he is. You will see more of him in the next episode called "The Gray Friar." Watch for it.

Later Selma is abandoned and the artist becomes the husband of a prominent heiress. Enthusiastic over Selma's rare beauty, her latest admirer suggests a game of cards, the stakes to be Selma herself. The winner to accompany her to her home. Disgusted at the affair, Selma flees, but is followed by Young Spendthrift, the winner. Spendthrift offers Selma large sums of money—but to no avail. Selma lectures Spendthrift and tells him that if she had his opportunities in life, she would have accomplished things, instead of being the "sort of woman she was."

Struck with an inspiration, Spendthrift decides to give her a chance, and presents her with one hundred thousand dollars. Later Wealth, father-in-law of Selma's former lover, covets the fortune of Spendthrift, and uses the artist to bring about his ruin By means of underhand methods, Wealth gains his end. Spendthrift is ruined Selma in the meantime, has devoted her money and time to creating a hospital for the care of abandoned children Visiting among the poor families takes much of her time.

Artist comes to the affair with Spendthrift, becomes intoxicated and at the end the two lie down to sleep off the stupor
